

Summer Birthdays Festivate

Oh, when the equinox air heats up
Over lovely Edmonds town
A lovely pair are celebrating
Anniversaries of renown

Chorus (sing-a-long):

We love birthdays in the warm mid-year
Singing songs of wholesome aging cheer
Kicking Old Man Time in his fearsome rear
Tra la la la la

Oh, they love to bake a cake of rum
And sip some frigid schnapps
And dance around in their birthday suits
Till the neighbors call the cops

[Chorus]

[Bassoon solo]

[Piano solo]

[Bassoon and piano improv]

[Lead the crowd in "the wave"]

Bridge:

Out on the town to festivate
Salmon or crab upon the plate?
No time to prevaricate
Carpe diem like a pi-rate

So, one more year around the sun
Sizzling under their wholesome guise
Schuhplattler until the sun doth rise
What would we do otherwise?

[Chorus]

For mom and dad
- Cliff Watson, 2018

